A FALL WEDDING.

Miss Florence Hurxthal and Will K. Atwater.

MANY HANDSOME GIFTS.

The Ceremony Took Place in the Drawing Room Prettily Decorated with Fall Flowers and Foliage—Two Hundred Guests at the Reception—Those from Out of Town.

The marriage of Miss Florence Hurxthal and Mr. Will Knapp Atwater took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary McCullough, 231 East Main street, on Wednesday evening, in the presence of a number of relatives and old family friends. Afterwards there was a large reception, at which more than two hundred guests were present.

The ceremony was performed between the two front windows of the drawing room, which was charmingly decorated with smilax, autumn leaves, red berries and pink and white chrysanthemums. The bride came from the hall with her brother, Mr. Ben Hurxthal; the groom with the officiating minister, the Rev. Cassius M. Roberts, rector of St. Timothy's church, entered from the library. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Miss Nina Deardorff, the bride's cousin. During the reception which followed a buffet supper was served in the dining room and library. The bride wore a gown of ivory crepe. It was made with a yoke of mousseline de soie and trimmed with duchesse lace. She carried white chrysanthemums. Mrs. McCullough's gown was of black silk trimmed with lavendar crepe and Brussels lace. Mrs. David Atwater, mother of the groom, wore black brocaded silk. Mrs. Ben Hurxthal wore a handsome black lace gown; Mrs. C. P. More, of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride, also wore black lace over black silk.

The wedding gifts which were displayed in a room on the second floor, included almost every conceivable necessity for housekeeping. There were numerous large pieces of silverware, quantities of smaller table silver, large and small glasses, salad bowls, vases and other articles in cut glass; two handsome sets of china, pictures and pieces of bric a brac; a set of bedroom furniture in solid mahogany; two checks, each containing figures of generous size, and other things too numerous to mention. The groom's gift to the bride was a brooch in the shape of a crescent set with pearls. The newly married pair left at 10:32 for New York. The bride's traveling gown was a tailor-made suit of blue cheviot. After a short absence Mr. and Mrs. Atwater will make their home at the McCullough residence in East Main street.

Among the guests present were the the following from out of town: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hurxthal, of Mansfield; the Misses Nina and Bertha Deardorff and Messrs. I. N. and U. C. Deardorff, of Canal Dover; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Deardorff and E. C. Deardorff, of Toledo; Mrs. C. H. Kelly, Mrs. C. P. More, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Merwin and S. M. Knapp, of Cleveland; William A. Knapp, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weeble and Captain and Mrs. W. S. Williams of Canton; Mrs. Amanda Rhodes, of San Francisco, Mrs. Edgar Wright, of Pittsburg, Miss Carrie Willard, of Halifax, Pa., Miss Debbis Hill, of Cleveland, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rigdon, of Council Bluffs, Ia.

THE LAST RITES.

Great Outpouring at the Ess Funeral.

THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE.

A Remarkable Manifestation of Popular Regard—Funeral Sermon by the Rev. T. F. Mahon—Floral Tributes—The Elks' Service at the Residence.

The Massillon lodge of Elks held services over the body of the late Joseph J. Ess at the family residence in South East street on Friday morning at 9:15. The services were conducted by Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler T. Harvey Smith, assisted by the officers of the Massillon lodge. The floral offering was a clock design, with the hands pointing to the hour of eleven, significant of the "eleven o'clock toast" which is proposed to "absent and departed brethren."

More than three thousand people attended the services at St. Joseph's church at 9:30. The church was filled long before the hour announced, and when the funeral party arrived it was packed to the doors. The body was escorted from the Ess residence by the Massillon Military band, which formed a hollow square about the hearse.

The services were conducted by the Rev. J. F. Kuebler, of St. Joseph's church, assisted by the Rev. H. V. Kaempker, of St. Mary's church, and the Rev. T. F. Mahon, of Cleveland, former rector of St. Joseph's. The music was furnished by the combined choirs of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's churches. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. T. F. Mahon. The Rev. Mr. Mahon spoke with feeling and eloquence of the high esteem in which Mr. Ess was held by the citizens of Massillon, and all who knew him. Although the deceased was called before his maker without a word of warning, the speaker said that he had no fear for the salvation of his soul. The floral offerings were many and magnificent. Among the finest and largest of these was a large harp tied with a white satin ribbon, on which was inscribed the words "Our Leader," by the Military band.

Each of the Canton bands sent a beautiful floral piece, as did also the Harmonia band, of Massillon.

After the services the funeral procession proceeded to St. Mary's cemetery. The route followed was lined with friends who were not able to obtain places in the church. The first carriage contained Mrs. Joseph Ess and the immediate relatives; then came a carriage filled with flowers. The Harmonia band, playing a dirge, came next, then the members of the Massillon lodge of Elks, Grand Army band, of Canton, and the mourners' carriages. Thayer's band, of Canton, was unable to attend, but sent a committee, including Mr. Thayer and Mr. Haitren. Following the Elks was the hearse, with the Military band formed in a hollow square about it, and having their instruments draped in crepe. When St. Mary's cemetery was reached a short service was again held, after which the body was lowered into the grave. The pallbearers were: Albert Shaidnagle, A. J. Richeimer, Harold Howald, W. H. Ertle, Henry Pflug and Jerome F. Shepley.

The funeral was one of the most remarkable spontaneous manifestations of popular regard ever seen in this community, the silent presence of thousands testifying to the high character and popular esteem in which Mr. Ess was held. Although young in years, it had fallen to the lot of few men in this community to participate so usefully in local activities of every description, and the great outpouring was a public evidence of appreciation and affection.

Among the floral tributes at the Ess funeral mention of which was omitted from Friday's INDEPENDENT, were a large basket of roses from Col. W. H. Morgan, of the Engineering works at Alliance, and a cross from the employes of the works. A lyre of roses from the Maenorchoir band of Alliance, and a large anchor of roses from Jacob and Harry Foltz, in whose store Mr. Ess was employed.

GOSHEN, Ill.

Genessee Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y.:

Dear Sirs:—Some days since a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank.

Respectfully yours,

A. C. JACKSON, M. D.

CHAIRMAN WISE.

The Mayor Presides at a Greenville Meeting.

GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS.

Republicans Will Hold Their Last Meeting Monday Evening—Lively Betting on Results—Secretary Minich Says Massillon Will Go Republican—John O. Jenkins Pens a Political Poem.

A number of Massillonians went to East Greenville Friday evening to attend the Republican rally. Preceding the meeting, which was held in the school house, a brilliant parade marched and countermarched over the town. There were about 150 horsemen in line. Mayor Wise was made chairman of the meeting, being introduced by James Crichton. The mayor made a brief address upon accepting the honor. The orators of the evening were D A. Hughes and D. W. Shetler, both Canton attorneys.

W. J. Minich, secretary of the Democratic central committee, says he does not believe that Bayan will carry Massillon, as many of the leading local members of the party claim. Four years ago McKinley's plurality in Massillon and Perry township was 122.

Lively betting characterized Friday night in local political circles. Even money was laid that McKinley would receive a greater number of electoral votes than in 1896, and that he would carry a greater number of states than Bryan. There were also even bets that he would carry Stark county and Massillon. No large sums were posted. Most of the money was raised by pools.

CANAL FULTON, Nov. 3.—The Imperial band, the best musical organization the town has ever had, is rent and torn with dissension, and all because of politics. There are Democrats and Republicans in the band. They got along well together until imperialism and the trusts became political questions, on which they disagree with such bitterness that they refuse to associate with each other, professionally or otherwise. Strong influence is being brought to bear on the malcontents, and every other effort will be made to maintain the organization.

John O. Jenkins, a well known member of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Tin and Steel Workers, has composed a song entitled "McKinley is Our Man." The music is set to the time of "Auld Lang Syne."

James Boyle, consul of the United States at Liverpool, passed through the city this morning on his way to Columbus. Mr. Boyle will return shortly after the election.

John McBride, who came up from Columbus Thursday evening, was seen today by a representative of THE INDEPENDENT. Mr. McBride said that the newspapers had been right in saying that he intended to vote for McKinley and Roosevelt, and that while he does not expect to make any speeches, he will do everything possible for the success of the Republican ticket. He considers the chances good for the re-election of President McKinley, but says there are dangerous forces at work on the other side. Ohio, he thinks, will go Republican this year by as large a majority as in 1896. Mr. McBride will return to Columbus to vote.

DEMONSTRATION AT PIGEON RUN.

PIGEON RUN, Nov. 2.—The Republican demonstration held here Thursday evening by the McKinley club was large and enthusiastic. The speakers were W. L. Day, son of ex-Secretary of State Day, and Mayor Robertson, of Canton, who were escorted at the head of the procession to the Pigeon Run hall by W. S. Evans, central committeeman, and E. G. Bowers, chairman for the evening, and followed by the Wilmot band, headed by William Reay, president of the citizens' committee, the drum corps, citizens carrying banners and numerous horsemen. Twelve hundred people heard the speeches at the hall.

THE TROUBLE NOT ENDED.

One of the Suspended Students Will Take the Case to Court.

A special from Alliance regarding the trouble at Mt. Union college, says: "The trouble between the faculty and the students of Mt. Union college, which was supposed to have been ended yesterday when the students voted to return to classes under protest, took a new phase today when Frank Carr, one of the suspended students, employed the law firm of Rogers & Hart to take legal measures to prevent the faculty from expelling him for disobeying an order of the faculty to leave town during his suspension. Under advice of his father, Rev. J. M. Carr, of Girard, formerly of Cleveland, young Carr has remained here during his suspension, which is in direct disregard of the faculty's order. A note received from the faculty called his attention to this fact, and intimated that further disobedience would necessitate his expulsion. It is to prevent this that the attorneys have been retained."

TALES OF TOWN.

Consumers of Phosphates Now a Large Army.

DE QUINCY IS OUTDONE.

His 400 or 500 Drops of Laudanum Were Scarcely Half a Dose for Certain Local Citizens—Some Literary Talk—Clothiers Object to This Fall Weather—Other Stories.

The soda water season, which has been prolonged beyond the usual limit by the fine weather of the past few weeks, was summarily brought to a close by most dealers today. A comparison of figures shows that the consumption of soda water during the past season has been the greatest in the history of the trade. The largest increase has been in the phosphate drinks, particularly coca cola. "With these drinks," remarked a man in the business, this morning, "there is a popularity no kind of weather can entirely destroy. There are lovers of the cola and the lemon who would patronize the fountain in the coldest of weather. There are men in the town who never began a day's work without first indulging in a glass of phosphate. With them it is a habit and one of which they can with difficulty break themselves."

"I think I know why 'The Reign of Law' is so difficult to obtain at the library," suggested a reader, the other day. "It's because it isn't smooth and fascinating like most of the new books. It's hard and solid. The people with the craze for the new get hold of it, and though they don't like the book and can't read more than a dozen or two pages at a time, they feel that they must finish it. Thus the volume is with them the limit and often longer while the crowds of patrons desiring it grows in number every day."

The Irish potato has been given a new importance by a local colored citizen, who in the dim and distant past discovered its efficacy as a preventive of rheumatism to be far superior to the carrying of buckeyes or the backward walking in the light of the moon. "You take a potato of medium size," said the citizen today, "and you carry it in your pocket till it petrifies. First it becomes very soft, but after a while it hardens and becomes harder and harder till it gets like a rock. By this time it has drawn all the rheumatism out of you That's what makes the potato solid, and as long as you carry it in your pocket you're safe from trouble of that kind."

"De Quincy," remarked a knowing one today, "in Confessions of an Opium Eater,' tells with a spectacular impressiveness that implies a broken record that some days he required 400 or 500 drops of laudanum to bring him to a state of happiness. There are people in the vicinity who could give this confessor cards and spades. I know one man who takes 240 grains at a dose, and who takes four or five doses a day."

The fair fall weather has not created great joy among the local clothiers and tailors. The average citizen will not buy an overcoat or other heavy clothing until the weather warrants his wearing the same. "I don't know what they wear," said a dealer today, "they know they've got to buy, and yet they stay away instead of rushing in and getting their pick of the new goods. I suppose they think that if a month or two more of nice weather passes they won't need any winter clothes at all. There's where they make the mistake. The longer the fall the longer the winter."

"I used to think," observed a red-faced man who was trying hard to rid himself of a dark brown taste today, "that I would never see the time when I could not remember what had happened the day before, no matter what my condition may have been. But I was wrong. Yesterday and last night I spent at the bar, according to the statements of my friends. I have no recollection of the day or night. The drink drowned out that faculty. I have heard drinking men speak of this sort of thing, but I've never believed in it. But now I'm forced to it. All day and most of the night I stood, talked, laughed and drank, and then went home and to bed. Yet today I remember nothing about the day or what I did. It's a warning, I guess."

Mt Union Students Go Back.

The striking students at Mt. Union College have had time to realize that they were acting in a very foolish manner, and are willing to forgive the faculty and go back to their studies -under protest, as will be seen by the following card to the public: "We, the students of Mt. Union College, having the best interests of the college at heart, seeking to maintain the honor of the institution, and desiring to prevent the further spread of false and misleading newspaper reports, do now agree to comply with the modified action of the faculty, though still feeling that a misunderstanding exists, and in going back we protest against what we still regard as unjust treatment of Messrs. Fornear and Carr."

THE NEW YORK PARADE.

Governor Roosevelt Witnesses the Demonstration.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—[By Associated Press]—Bad weather interfered with today's parade of the business men's Republican and Sound Money association. The streets were gaily decorated. The Democrats had poles erected along the line of march and protected by police. On the poles were legends such as these: "Trusts can make you march, but cannot make you vote against Bryan." "This is a trust parade, and not a Republican parade." Governor Roosevelt viewed the parade.

It required one hour for the wholesale dry goods men to pass the stand, in platoons of sixteen.

MONDAY NOVEMBER 1900.

M. D. Ratchford made a telling hit at Candidate Adlai Stevenson in a speech made before a big meeting at Toledo last Saturday. "Four years ago," said Mr. Ratchford, "when William J. Bryan was spending his fine words about the cross of gold and the crown of thorns, his present running mate was chasing organizers of the miners' union from his premises near Bloomington, at the point of a shotgun. I was there, and while he did not point a gun at me, I had to get out."

Minister Wu Ting Fang was not quoting Confucius for political effect in his eloquent and scholarly address at Pittsburg the other day; nevertheless the words of the famous sage of China must have appealed with great force to the voters in his audience whose only grudge against the present administration is that it does not believe in being guided by ancient and familiar maxims in dealing with situations to which they are inapplicable. The phrase quoted by Minister Wu was:

"Let a man who is living in the present age go back to the ways of antiquity: on such a person, calamity will be sure to come."

The indications are apparent that County Recorder Daugherty will be re-elected by a large majority. A great many men are elected to county office merely as a reward for political service and without regard to fitness. Mr. Daugherty is deserving of all that can be said in favor of any man who has worked earnestly for his political faith. But he has done more than that; he has demonstrated for two years his usefulness and fitness for the office of recorder and he has given the public a business administration of a business office, coupled with such considerate methods as to have won the friendship of every one with whom he has come in contact.

The discussion of Mr. Neeley, the Cuban defaulter, who is being properly punished, has suddenly ceased. The Democratic brethren have discovered that if the shortcomings of Neeley constitute an anti-Republican argument, the history of Democratic defalcations in Stark county constitute an equally effective anti-Democratic argument. As a matter of fact, there is no argument to be found lurking about either case, except as the presentation of one heads off silly vaporings about the other. The Canton News-Democrat for once has nothing to say about Mr. Neeley and objects to THE INDEPENDENT's references, inquiring pathetically: "Is there to be no sense of decency in the closing moments of the Republican campaign?"

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that the people of this congressional district are "standing around idle on the street in company with other men in the same predicament," Yet in the same issue of the Enquirer in which this sapient observation was published, the Massillon Iron and Steel Company was advertising for twenty laborers to whom steady work was offered, and W. D. Miller was advertising for ten men for immediate employment. Similar advertisements are appearing from day to day, and if any man is "standing around idle on the street" he has only himself to blame for it. The full dinner pail argument is the most impressive argument that can possibly be presented. There is not a resident of this county who knows anything about militarism, imperialism or any other Democracism from any personal experience, but the full dinner pail is something that everybody knows all about, and it is a little difficult to comprehend why any of our people should propose to empty that dinner pail in order that Mr. Bryan may be President.

William L. Strong, ex-mayor of New York, whose death occurred suddenly on Friday morning, was one of the many bright Ohioans who have reflected credit upon their native state by achieving greatness elsewhere. Mr. Strong was born in Ashland county, but went to New York when a young man. There he took an active interest in politics and was elected mayor on the Republican Citizens' Union ticket in 1894. His administration was an eventful one. It was he who appointed Mr. Waring commissioner of street cleaning and in spite of strong opposition kept him in office until the end of the mayoral term. It was also he who placed the affairs of the police department into the hands of a board at the head of which was Theodore Roosevelt, thereby improving the efficacy of the New York police whose corruption had been disclosed by the investigation of the Lexow committee. For the past few years Mr. Strong has retired from active politics on account of failing health. He spoke for Mr. Roosevelt, however, in the campaign of 1898, and has since been a strong advocate of the strenuous principles of Republicanism which the latter represents.

A person who came into the county not later than the 7th of October, 1900, is entitled to vote if otherwise qualified.

An unmarried man who came into the township, or into a ward or municipality not later than October 17, 1900, if otherwise qualified, is entitled to vote.

The "head of a family" who came into the state not later than November 6, 1899, and into the county not later than October 7, 1900, is entitled to vote in the township, ward or precinct in which his family resides, whether he has been in such township, ward or precinct one or more days.

The words "head of a family" have been held to mean "he who provides for a family," "the husband or father is ordinarily the head, but there may be a head where there is no marriage relation."

The place where a person sleeps is his "habitation." The place where he eats or has his washing done has nothing to do with his "habitation." His voting place is, therefore, in the ward or precinct where he sleeps. Provided,

A married man (unless "where husband and wife have separated and live apart") is entitled to vote only where his family permanently resides.

A married man separated from and living apart from his wife, but who is living with and providing for his children, is the "head of a family," and is entitled to vote where his family resides.

A married man separated from, and living apart from his wife and not the "head of the family," is entitled to vote only as an unmarried man.

If a married man moves into a county not later than October 7, and his wife, or if separated from his wife, his family does not come into the county until October 8 or thereafter, he is not entitled to vote.

If the wife of a married man, or if separated from his wife, the family moves into the county in good faith not later than October 7, he is entitled to vote, no matter if he himself did not come into the county until after the 7th.

That place shall be considered the residence of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning.

A person shall not be considered to have lost his residence who leaves his home and goes into another state, or county of this state, for temporary purposes only, with the intention of returning.

Whether a person has left his usual voting place for temporary purposes only is largely to be determined by the judges. The length of time of temporary absence is not to be considered as long as the right of franchise was not exercised by the voter somewhere else, and so long as it was his intention to return. A person in the government service, at Washington or elsewhere, is "temporarily" absent, and entitled to vote at the place he resided before going into the state's service, whether his family is absent with him or not.

CAN'T KEEP IT UP.

Can't Deceive Massillon People Very Long—They Learn Quickly.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a far-away place, but the circumstances are entirely different when home endorsement is presented. The testimony of local citizens renders deceit impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case:

Mr. G. W. Henrich, well known dealer in groceries and provisions at 26 East [illegible] street, says: "If I had not used Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Baltzly's drug store myself, and thoroughly know from personal experience what results they produce, I would be the last man in Massillon to recommend them to friends and acquaintances. To say I give this medicine my unqualified endorsement mildly expresses my opinion of the preparation."

Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

It is exasperating to one who has used Foley's Honey and Tar and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good" for colds, coughs, croup, la grippe, etc. Rider & Snyder.

WINGS NEEDED TO FLY

AERIAL NAVIGATION ACCORDING TO FIRST PRINCIPLES.

What Professor Langley Has Done to Solve the Problem of the Age—Two Different Kinds of Flying Machines.

Flying machines, which are at the present time attracting universal attention, are divided by scientific men into two great and widely differing classes—dirigible balloons and airships proper. One of the former may be roughly described as a huge body, which, being very light, floats in the air, is driven by the wind and is capable of being steered. The leading example of this class of airship is the Von Zeppelin balloon, recently tried successfully in Europe. It is believed by scientists generally, however, that the true solution of the problem of aerial navigation lies in an airship provided with wings and modeled after some bird. Such a machine will be able to rise from the earth, sustain itself in the air and actually fly, independently of the wind and by means of self contained power.

The two scientists who are leading the van in aerial research are Hiram Maxim, the gun inventor, and Professor Samuel Pierpont Langley, director of the Smithsonian institution at Washington, both Americans. Professor Langley has invented and constructed an airship which he calls an aerodrome and which has actually flown. It only awaits further research and experimentation before being given to the public.

Had Professor Langley never taken up the problem of aerial navigation his fame would still be secure, for he is probably the leading astronomer and physicist of America. He is 66 years of age and has been secretary and director of the Smithsonian institution since 1887. Professor Langley was born in Massachusetts and was graduated from the Boston Latin school. Since then his life has been devoted to science, and his success has been notable. He holds many honors and medals, among others the Rumford medal of the Royal society and the Henry Draper medal.

six years. She displays a wonderful sense of expression joined to a brilliant technique. The concert at which she played was given by the authorities of Vexie, at which town the king was staying. His majesty, who is no mean musician himself, was much struck by her rendering of certain difficult pieces and complimented her warmly.

Miss Hjerstedt is an earnest student. She graduated last year from the Chicago Musical college and will go to Berlin, where she is to be put under the care of well known German instructors for two years. Her American friends are much elated over her triumph.

Under her special supervision Mme. von Klenner with infinite care prepared for the exhibition a comprehensive and exhaustive resume of her work as the Garcia exponent in America, showing minutely the progress of the method, together with reports of pupils, concerts and disquisitions on the fixity of the method in America and its thorough adaptation to the development of the voice and the art of singing.

EARL HALL.

Columbia University's New Building and Its Purpose.

Our great universities not only aim at the mental education of young men in their courses of study, but they also almost invariably raise the moral tone of their attendants. To that end in every college of importance there are various associations which have as their aim the spiritual and religious uplifting of their members. Sometimes such associations are sectarian, but more frequently they are ready to welcome students of any creed. The Young Men's Christian association has a branch in almost all of the large universities, and its influence for good is very great.

Besides the Young Men's Christian association, a few of the larger universities possess buildings, undenominational and unsectarian in character, which serve as centers of the spiritual life of the universities. Sometimes also the sectarian societies meet here on a common basis. Such a building is the one which is to be presented to Columbia university by William Earl Dodge, a millionaire New York merchant and philanthropist. Mr. Dodge has given hundreds of thousands of dollars to the Young Men's Christian association, more than any other individual helper. His gift to Columbia university will be known as Earl Hall. Mr. Dodge suggested to the trustees that it be under association management, because that is a permanent body, and added:

"It is my desire that the building should not be used for distinctly dogmatic or denominational teaching, but I want the charter under which it is administered to be so broadly interpreted as to permit organizations of Roman Catholic students or of Hebrew students, whose objects are to promote the spiritual and religious life of such students, to hold their meetings in this building as freely as any others. In a word, my desire is that the building shall be to Columbia what Barnes Hall is to Cornell, what Phillips Brooks House is to Harvard or what the parish house is to a city church—a center of religious and philanthropic activity."

BULLDOGS OF THE NAVY

The Wisconsin a Worthy Sister of the Oregon.

BALANCED ELLIPTICAL TURRETS.

New Idea In Naval Construction. The Man Who Made the Greatest of Battleships—Brought Up as a Quaker—Lesson In Thoroughness.

The Oregon, the bulldog of our navy and the pride of the Pacific coast, has now a sister ship and yardmate worthy of her. The Wisconsin, built, like the Oregon, at the Union Iron works, at San Francisco, has just proved herself the fatest battleship afloat, making an average speed of 17.25 knots on her trial trip. She may do yet better in actual service, as the Oregon surprised even the naval experts by her wonderful burst of speed at Santiago. The Wisconsin surpassed all expectations, for her specifications called for only 16 knots. Her trial trip was made during adverse conditions of wind and tide, and at its end she had steam to spare. She is truly a worthy addition to Uncle Sam's fleet, and all connected with her, designer, constructor and crew, deserve the highest commendation for the result of their labors.

The Wisconsin is a sister ship of the Illinois and Alabama. Her length at the water line is 368 feet, her beam 72 feet and her mean draft 23 feet 6 inches. Her displacement is 11,525 tons and her contract speed 16 knots per hour. The armor of the big ship consists of a nickel steel belt varying from 4 to 16.5 inches thick. Her turrets are protected by steel plates 15 to 17 inches thick and her conning tower by 10 inch armor. The entire mass of the armor is 2,800 tons. The armament of the Wisconsin carries four 13 inch breechloaders, fourteen 6 inch quick firing guns, seventeen 6 pounders, six 1 pounders and four machine guns. Her great engines develop 10,000 horsepower, and her complement is 490 men and officers.

Our newest battleship has one novel feature—the Hichborn balanced elliptical turrets. These turrets have the front plates slightly inclined and the rear plates vertical. They are so arranged as to reduce very greatly the jarring of the ship by the recoil of the great guns contained in them. They are the invention of Rear Admiral Philip Hichborn, chief constructor of the United States navy. The turrets have been tried and answer their purpose very well.

The man to whom much credit is due for the addition to our navy of the Wisconsin and Oregon, of Dewey's peerless cruiser Olympia and of the San Francisco, the ill fated Charleston and the Monterey, is Irving Murray Scott, for these ships were built by the Union Iron works of San Francisco, of which he is the head. Strange to say, this Cramp of the Pacific coast, this builder of unexcelled vessels of war, is the descendant of a long line of Quakers. He was born on Christmas day, 1837, in Maryland. His father, the head of a congregation of Friends, intended him for one of the liberal professions, and he received an academical education. The young man, however, was of a mechanical turn of mind and learned in Baltimore the art of building and designing engines.

In 1858 he went to the scene of his future activities on the Pacific coast and soon became the leading manufacturer of machinery, especially of mining machinery, in California. He became very prominent in the community. As time went on his plant grew until he was able to turn out anything from a needle to a battleship.

Mr. Scott's wealth is very great, and he dispenses charity with a liberal hand. His position on the Pacific coast and the esteem in which he is held there are excelled by no man. He is a public spirited citizen and has held various minor offices. He could have been governor of his state or United States senator had he so wished. At the recent Republican national convention he was frequently mentioned as a candidate for the vice presidency.

A Country Lass,

Health in her beaming eyes, health in her glowing cheek, health in her merry laugh. Yet country air and country hours can't save her from the common experience of women—an experience which dulls the eye, pales the cheek, and turns the laugh to a sigh. Womanly ills come to almost all. But for these ills there is help and healing in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, stops unhealthy drains, cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"Miss Ella Sapp, of Jamestown, Guilford Co., N. C., writes: "I had suffered three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pain in my back and stomach. I could not stand without fainting; had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better—had better appetite and slept better. Now I am happy to say I am entirely cured, and all done in two months' time, when all other medicines had failed to do any good at all."

Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

ANGLO-GERMAN PACT.

Henri Rochefort, speaking of the Anglo-German alliance to the Paris correspondent of the New York Journal the other day, said:

"England's pretended respect for the integrity of China is a mere farce. Her zeal for the integrity of China is about as real as her respect for the integrity of the Transvaal republics. This newly found anxiety to keep the nation's integrity did not formerly characterize England's policy. Why, she permitted Germany to dismember France.

"The 'open door' and integral China are mere phrases of diplomatic hypocrisy. The real object of the Anglo-German alliance is to prevent Russia from taking Manchuria. England and Germany are also trying to break the Franco-Russian alliance. Should Russia hold Manchuria her rivals, England and Germany, will wage war against her. France cannot stand by and see Russia beaten, for with Russia vanquished these two powers would turn their forces against France.

"We have now to deal not with a triple, but with a quadruple alliance. England and Germany are both influenced by the principle of might. They respect nothing but superior force. The German emperor has gone back to his grandmother's leading strings. Of course, he gets some consideration for his friendship. The Socialists make it difficult for him to get money through the reichstag for his ambitious schemes and England is probably supplying it in consideration of the new alliance."

Lucien Millevoye, Nationalist deputy for Paris, said: "The terms of the Anglo-German treaty are a gratuitous and unwarranted insult to all other nations concerned, including the United States. The treaty says in effect, 'We, England and Germany, have decided to do thus and so; you, France, America and the rest, must adhere to our decision.'

"It is a case of the German emperor and his grandmother claiming suzerainty over Europe and the United States. France has treaty rights with China to oppose any change in the provisions with Yunnan, Kwang-Si and Kwang-Tung. We have enormous railway interests which we must protect. We must also protect Belgium's concessions in China, as the German emperor has prevented King Leopold from sending troops there yet.

"England tries to belittle our interest in China. The secret clauses of the treaty are certainly directed against Russia and France. Russia is threatened by two bullies. Self respecting powers cannot sit idly by and permit Chamberlain and Emperor William to issue orders to the rest of the world."

SOUND MONEY PARADE

Republican Demonstration In New York.

WERE ABOUT 140,000 MEN IN LINE.

Governor Roosevelt Rode at the Head and Later Reviewed the Marchers—Mrs. Roosevelt and Others Also on the Reviewing Stand.

New York, Nov. 3.—Thousands marched in the Republican Sound Money parade here today. Probably 140,000 men were in line.

The parade started from Worth street and Broadway about 10 o'clock It was led by a platoon of mounted police. Behind the police platoon came Governor Roosevelt in a carriage, surrounded by members of the executive committee. Next was General McCook and staff, leading the parade proper. The place of honor was accorded to the Wholesale Dry Goods Men's Republican club, which had about 35,000 men in line. The bankers and brokers' division, 10,000 strong, followed the dry goods men.

General Molineux was grand marshal of the drug, paint and oil division, and his sons, Leslie and Cecil, acted as his staff officers.

A feature of the parade was the banners and bannerettes which were carried. Many unique designs had been devised, and they lent the necessary color and picturesqueness to make the parade attractive and interesting throughout.

The march was through Broadway to Waverley place, then through the Washington arch and up Fifth avenue to Fortieth street. Governor Roosevelt reviewed the parade from the stand just above the Dewey arch on the right hand side of the street When the parade reached Madison square it was halted just long enough to allow the governor to take his place on the stand. Mrs. Roosevelt and her children had seats on the reviewing stand near the governor. Among the distinguished men who occupied places on the reviewing stand were Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, Benjamin B Odell, ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, Franklin Murphy John Proctor Clarke, General Francis V. Greene, General John H. Brooke John A. McCall, Charles A. Schieren Colonel A. S. Mills, Oscar S. Straus and Frederick S. Gibbs.

When the parade had passed the reviewing stand it continued up to Fortieth street and Fifth avenue in strict formation and at that point the disbandonment began.

KNOW NO CLASS DISTINCTION.

President Writes a Letter, Being Unable to Review Parade.

New York, Nov. 3.—The following letter was given out by Secretary Drake, of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association

"Canton, O., Nov. 1, 1900.

"My Dear Mr. Strong—Public duty will not permit me to accept the invitation to review the parade of Nov. 3 of the organization composing the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money association. I recall the inspiriting demonstration of four years ago, and rejoice that now, as then with undiminished ranks, citizens of all parties are in line for national honor, public law, sound currency and industrial prosperity, and, as in 1896 are arrayed against those who are inciting class hatred and discontent among the people of our happy country.

"We know no class distinctions in this fair land of ours. The American people will permit no stain to be put upon the American name.

"May those marching freemen and their patriotic allies throughout the country stamp out for all time in this republic the evils of repudiation and dishonor.

"Very sincerely yours,

"Honorable William L. Strong, President Business Men's Republican Sound Money Association, New York."

BRYAN'S CHICAGO TOUR.

Addressed Larger Crowds, on Second Day—Auditors Threatened to Lynch a Questioner.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—William Jennings Bryan's program in Chicago the second day comprehended 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of Thursday and Thursday night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel hall, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workingmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day. Two men in the audience asked, almost simultaneously, "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying, when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, however, but could not do so for some time owing to the uproar made by the crowd in expressing its resentment toward the inquisitor. The latter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's night meetings were held on the North, West, Southwest and South Sides of the city, the closing speech being made at midnight at State and Thirty-first streets.

Negro Sentenced For Life.

New York, Nov. 3.—Arthur Harris, the negro who stabbed Policeman Robert L. Thorpe to death on Aug. 12, was sentenced to life imprisonment. The murder of Thorpe was the cause of serious race riots in this city.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DEAD.

Ex-Mayor of New York Expired Suddenly. Born In Ohio—President Sent Telegram of Condolence.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at his residence in this city.

Mr. Strong took an active part in the present campaign, and it is said that his political labors combined with his attempts to regain supervision over his business affairs, in the face of impaired health, brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1821 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm soon grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters, and was president of the Central National bank.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—On hearing of the death of ex-Mayor Strong, President McKinley sent a telegram of condolence.

ROOSEVELT BROKE RECORD.

Made the Longest Campaign of Any Known Candidate—Finished His Tour In New York.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice President, completed last night at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States. In eight weeks he has visited 24 states of the union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all the other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States of all parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by William J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles through 37 counties and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said last night: "With a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt.

THE CRUEL EMPRESS.

Had Kwang-Su's Favorite Wife Drowned.

OFFICIALS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Five Found Guilty at Pao Ting Fu of Participation In Murders of Missionaries—Empress Likely to Be Barred From Any Part In Governing China.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Official telegrams from Count Von Waldersee show that all the German troops have arrived in China and been distributed.

A special dispatch to the Hamburg Correspondent says:

"In a well situated in the imperial palace precincts in Pekin was found the body of Emperor Kwang Su's favorite wife, Shen Ti, whom the empress dowager caused to be drowned before the flight of the court from the capital. The second favorite, Shing Fi, and a hundred ladies belonging to the imperial harem are prisoners in the hands of the allies."

A dispatch from Pao Ting Fu, dated Thursday, says:

"Telegraphic connection has been completed with Pekin, entirely by the Germans. The railway from Pao Ting Fu to the capital is nearly completed. French detachments are guarding the line. The health of the German troops is steadily improving."

Another batch of letters from soldiers in China appears in a number of papers, among them the Hanover Courier, which editorially demands official statements with reference to the details given by the writers of the cruelties alleged to have been committed by German troops in China. This demand is warmly supported by the Freisinnige Zeitung.

TO PROVIDE FOR INDEMNITY.

Chinese Revenue May Be Increased. Other Points to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 3.—It was stated in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the question of indemnity, punishment, etc., now under negotiation at Pekin, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz., first, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisors, from all participation in the Chinese movement, as they are to blame for the Boxer outrages, but no personal punishment of the woman is intended; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold, instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorum, so that indemnities can be paid the powers; and, third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung Li Yamen.

Foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body, and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer troubles.

CHINESE SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Accused of Being Connected With Murders of Missionaries.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 3.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Shung-on, the military commandant; General Kin and two other officials.

THEOLOGICAL Y. M. C. A.'S.

Conference Met In Allegheny City and Opened With Prayer.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—The first business session of the triennial conference of the Young Men's Christian Association belonging to the theological seminaries in the United States and Canada opened with a prayer meeting at the Western Theological seminary, in Allegheny. Formal business was taken up by the delegates in the Fourth Presbyterian church, at Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, afterward.

The first feature was an address by Bishop J. M. Thoburn, of India. This was followed by addresses by the Rev. C. Armand Miller, of New York; Prof. Dyson Hague, of Wickliffe college, and President H. C. Weston, of Crozier Theological seminary.

Later there was a discussion as to the best method of furthering the work in seminaries. The discussion was led by Prof. Earl Taylor, of Chicago, and was folowed by the Rev. Cecil Owen, of London, Canada. Addresses were made last evening by Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, of New York, and the Rev. William F. McDowell, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, of New York.

The Rev. W. Merle Smith, of the Central Presbyterian church, New York City, also spoke.

The Pope Displeased.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The Courrier du Soir, which is often inspired, announces that M. Waldeck-Rousseau's speech at Toulouse last Sunday, in the course of which he alluded to measures contemplated by the government against religious congregations, has made a bad impression at the vatican and that the pope has instructed the papal nuncio in Paris to modify his conciliatory attitude toward the French government.

Ferrell Wants New Trial.

Marysville, O., Nov. 3.—A motion for a new trial was filed by Rosslyn H. Ferrell's attorneys on the ground that one of the jurors said Ferrell was guilty and his life was no better than Lane's, his victim. It is also charged that Joseph Roff, another juror, is not an elector.

Wanted to Kill Ashbridge.

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Charged with threatening to kill Mayor Ashbridge, a swarthy, well-dressed Mexican, who gave his name as Manuel Seraphin, was arrested by detectives in the mayor's reception room at the City hall and locked up.

BUSINESS HELD BACK.

Longing For Free Field to Leap Forward—Encouraging Signs In Iron Business.

New York, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says in part:

The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force and closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of concentrating operations at more advantageous points and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The weather in some sections has favored business, but at New York has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent in bank clearings here as compared with last year, though the week shows a gain of 20.3 per cent over 1898.

Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer and grey forge at Pittsburg shows that the recent increase in activity of finished forms has at last effected the market for raw material. Improvement in domestic over a year ago while the increase in agricultural products was only 9.5 per cent, this latter increase being entirely due to higher prices of cotton as compared with last year. The outlook is for an aggregate export of manufactured goods this year of at least $440,000,000, a total never heretofore approached. A curious feature is that most of that increase in import trade for the nine months is in products designed to be used by American manufacturers, so the anomaly is presented of American manufacturers being the largest importers of foreign products.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,612,421 bushels, against 4,932,978 last week, 3,046,856 in the corresponding week of 1899; 6,773,643 in 1898; 5,590,498 in 1897, and 3,472,979 in 1896. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 63,856,564 bushels, against 72,589,016 last season, and 73,845,522 in 1898-99. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,920,110, against 3,365,651 last week; 4,503,425 in this week a year ago; 3,566,640 in 1898; 2,199,550 in 1897 and 2,247,643 in 1896.

Failures for the week in the United States number 165, as against 161 last week; 174 in this week a year ago; 183 in 1898 and 223 in 1897 and 1896. Canadian failures number 16 against 31 last week, 21 in 1899, 32 in 1898, 34 in 1897 and 50 in 1896.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Developments In Money Market Justified Precautionary Attitude of Some.

New York, Nov. 3.—The developments in the money market Friday served fully to justify the precautionary attitude assumed by influential interests toward the speculation during the present week. Had the borrowing with which to hold stocks on margin proceeded this week with the headlong eagerness that was shown last week, the effect of Friday's flurry in call loans inevitably would have been much aggravated. The hardships of borrowers were increased by the additional strictness of lenders with regard to collateral, the rate being 1 per cent higher for loans where there was admixture of industrial securities than where they were all railroads.

The sub-treasury was debtor at the clearing house Friday to the amount of $2,392,771 on account of government interest payments. The feature of the preliminary estimates of the week's cash changes is the reversal shown in the current of the money movement with the interior. The banks have gained on the interior movement by express to the extent of probably near half a million dollars. Not until Friday, when $200,000 was deposited at the sub treasury for trasfer to Chicago, has there been any transfer to the interior through that medium. As a consequence of this and the large payments by the sub treasury on account of gold deposits at Pacific coast points, the official statement of this week's sub treasury operations shows a gain by the banks of $963,000. But it must be remembered that this official statement includes a payment on last Friday of checks to the amount of $3,000,000 for Australian gold deposited with the government at San Francisco.

TAYLER'S PREDICTION.

Ohio will Give McKinley an Overwhelming Majority.

In an interview at Youngstown, last night, Congressman R. W. Tayler said: "I never saw such enthusiasm among Republicans as I have witnessed this year. At every place where I have attended meetings the halls have always been too small to hold the crowds, and the enthusiasm of the large audiences has been remarkable. In all of my campaigns I have never seen such large and enthusiastic audiences. I have spoken in nearly every part of the district in every campaign for the past ten or twelve years, but this year Republican enthusiasm excels anything I ever saw. In Columbiana and Stark counties I believe the national ticket will have a plurality of 5.000. I believe my majority will almost reach that of the national ticket, although, of course, this is President McKinley's old district and he will be the strongest man on the ticket. I believe Ohio will give President McKinley a plurality of from 50,000 to 75,000."

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Fiend Who Laughed at His Crime, Sentenced.

M'ALLISTER AND OTHERS INDICTED

Four Murderers of Miss Bosschieter Held on Charges of Murder and Criminal Assault—The Dead Girl's Stomach Is Being Examined.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.—The audience in Judge Harkalow's court broke into a fit of laughter on the review of the evidence against Joseph Johnson, on trial for criminal assault. The prisoner joined in the laughter, when suddenly the judge ordered him to stand up. He then in a few brief words sentenced Johnson to 10 years in state's prison. Johnson almost fainted, and his wife screamed with terror as he was led away.

Johnson was foreman in a silk mill and his victim was 16 years old.

New York, Nov. 3.—The grand jury at Paterson, N. J., handed up an indictment against Walter C. McAllister, George J. Kerr, William A. Death and Andrew Campbell, who are charged with the murder of Jennie Bosschieter, who was drugged to death on Oct. 18. There were two indictments against each of the young men, one for murder and the other for rape, the first, it is said, also embracing the latter.

It is alleged that in the course of the discussion of the case among the members of the grand jury it was said that Jennie's heart was weak and it was possible that this may have been the cause of death. There was no evidence that chloral was administered, and this point can only be determined by the analysis of the stomach, which is now going on in New York, or by a confession from one of the accused men.

It is said in support of the statement that death may have been due to a weak heart, that on one occasion Jennie, while standing on a street corner, talking to two young men, fell in a faint and remained unconscious for half an hour. The vote on the indictment is said to be unanimous.

It is said it may be needful to accept the confession of Campbell or Death, or both, as witnesses and accept pleas of guilty from them to the crime of rape only. If the chemical analysis is strong enough, the confessions may not be used. Even if the analysis does not establish the administration of the drug, it is said that the state may elect to eliminate that feature of the matter and proceed to trial upon assumption that the violence of the assault caused heart failure and death and that would entail the death penalty as much as the administration of the drug.

NON-UNIONIST BADLY HURT.

Hot Fight Between Strikers and Workers Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The strike at the Riverside works of the National Tube company developed into a riot that will result in the death of at least one of the participants. A pitched battle was fought by the strikers and the men who have taken their places. Shots were exchanged and missiles of every description were used in the attack and resistance. Walter Davis, one of the non-union men, was dangerously injured. The back of his head was crushed with some heavy missile. He will die. More trouble is anticipated. The strike is not a question of wages, but a demand that the employers recognize the union.

GOULDS PAY COUNT'S DEBTS.

The Family's Millions Have Nearly Doubled Since the Father's Death.

New York, Nov. 3.—On the authority of an "intimate friend of the late Jay Gould," the Evening World announced that the debts of Count Boni de Castellane will probably be paid in full by the Goulds at once, amounting to $4,700,000.

The Gould millions have nearly doubled since Jay Gould's death, and Ana's share is nearly $18,000,000, and her income nearer $1,000,000 than $600,000, as heretofore stated. The total value of the Gould estate is now over $125,000,000.

Fined For Manslaughter.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 3.—Judge Sloan sentenced Frank Irwin, of Pittsburg, who shot James Slattery, of Richmond, Va., at Pinto, this county, on Aug. 4, and was convicted of manslaughter, to pay a fine of $500 and costs.

Expenditure for Mail Service.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The annual report of W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general, was made public. It shows that on June 30 last the annual rate of expenditure for inland mail service was $55,146,060, for foreign service $1,014,538; total expenditures, $57,160,538.

Mrs. Hart's Property Returned.

New York, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Annie Hart, whose furniture was seized by the officials of the Elizabethport (N. J.) bank, which lost $100,000 by William Schreiber's defalcation, was given the property back.

Died at Age of 123.

New York, Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman Horner Green, a former negro slave, died in the almshouse at Hempstead, L. I., at the reputed age of 123 years.

A Hunter Killed.

Clearfield, Pa., Nov. 3.—While a party of young men from Clearfield were hunting in the mountains near here, Paul McCool was accidentally shot and killed by Jerry Hockman. The body was brought here and Hockman was placed in custody pending the coroner's inquest.

NEARBY TOWN NEWS

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

CRYSTAL SPRING, Nov. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunckly arrived home from Akron, Tuesday.

Miss Edith Kirchberg, of Johnson, is visiting relatives here.

"Si Plunkard" was witnessed by about twenty of our people at Massillon, Monday night.

The Pahlaus, of Massillon, are scheduled to play the home team at this place Sunday afternoon.

August Bremkamp has charge of the Eureka mine, on account of the illness of Superintendent Lewis Bremkamp.

Henry Leibole, of the place, and Miss Maud Grub, of Canal Fulton, were married at the latter place Wednesday. They will reside in Fulton.

Halloween passed very quietly; no damage was done to property but shelled corn was hurled quite freely, making it unpleasant for pedestrians.

Joseph Baddorf, who was injured in the Mudbrook mine by the explosion of a shot, died Friday night at the home of Jacob Jonash, with whom he boarded. He leaves a wife and family in Poland.

David Weidner is seriously ill with appendicitis.

An agreement has been entered into between "Gick" Miesmer and Nick Kiefer that, if McKinley is re-elected, Miesmer is to spoil his good looks by the growth of a mustache; but in the event of McKinley's defeat, Kiefer's mustache is to pass into oblivion.

Massillon's ex-mayor had better be more careful in choosing his opening remarks, and not insinuate that Republican postmasters are defaulters. If little girls were to run the postal service, we wonder if gypsy girls would be eligible, too.
